Objectives and Tasks of TLN Mobility

Susanne Strehle

Head of Unit,

Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs (Germany)

1. Background and Strategic Objectives of TLN Mobility

IdA as „good example“

- successful implementation of IdA in Germany
- 60% of participants in employment or training six months after IdA
- although 80% had experienced unemployment before IdA (avg. 15 months)

Weaknesses identified in transnational cooperation during ESF programming period 2007 - 2013

- lack of institutionalized coordination
- project operators found it hard to identify TNC partners in other MS
- expenditure for preparation of transnational projects generally not eligible in MS

Strategic Objectives of TLN Mobility:

1. Improve integration of disadvantaged youth and young adults in employment, vocational training or education through transnational mobility measures
2. Foster transnational cooperation in the ESF by creating a reference model of coordinated and national/regional action which may be applicable to other ESF policy areas

3. Specific Objectives and Tasks of TLN Mobility

Specific Objective 1: Preparation of a coordinated call on transnational mobility measures for youth and young adults

Develop timetable for coordinated and national/regional action

Define common minimum requirements for coordinated call. Key areas: target group, quality, financial rules; implementation structures

Specific Objective 2: Launch of a coordinated call on transnational level

Publish coordinated call (based on common minimum requirements) on TLN Mobility webpage

Organize transnational conference to share results and increase participation in call

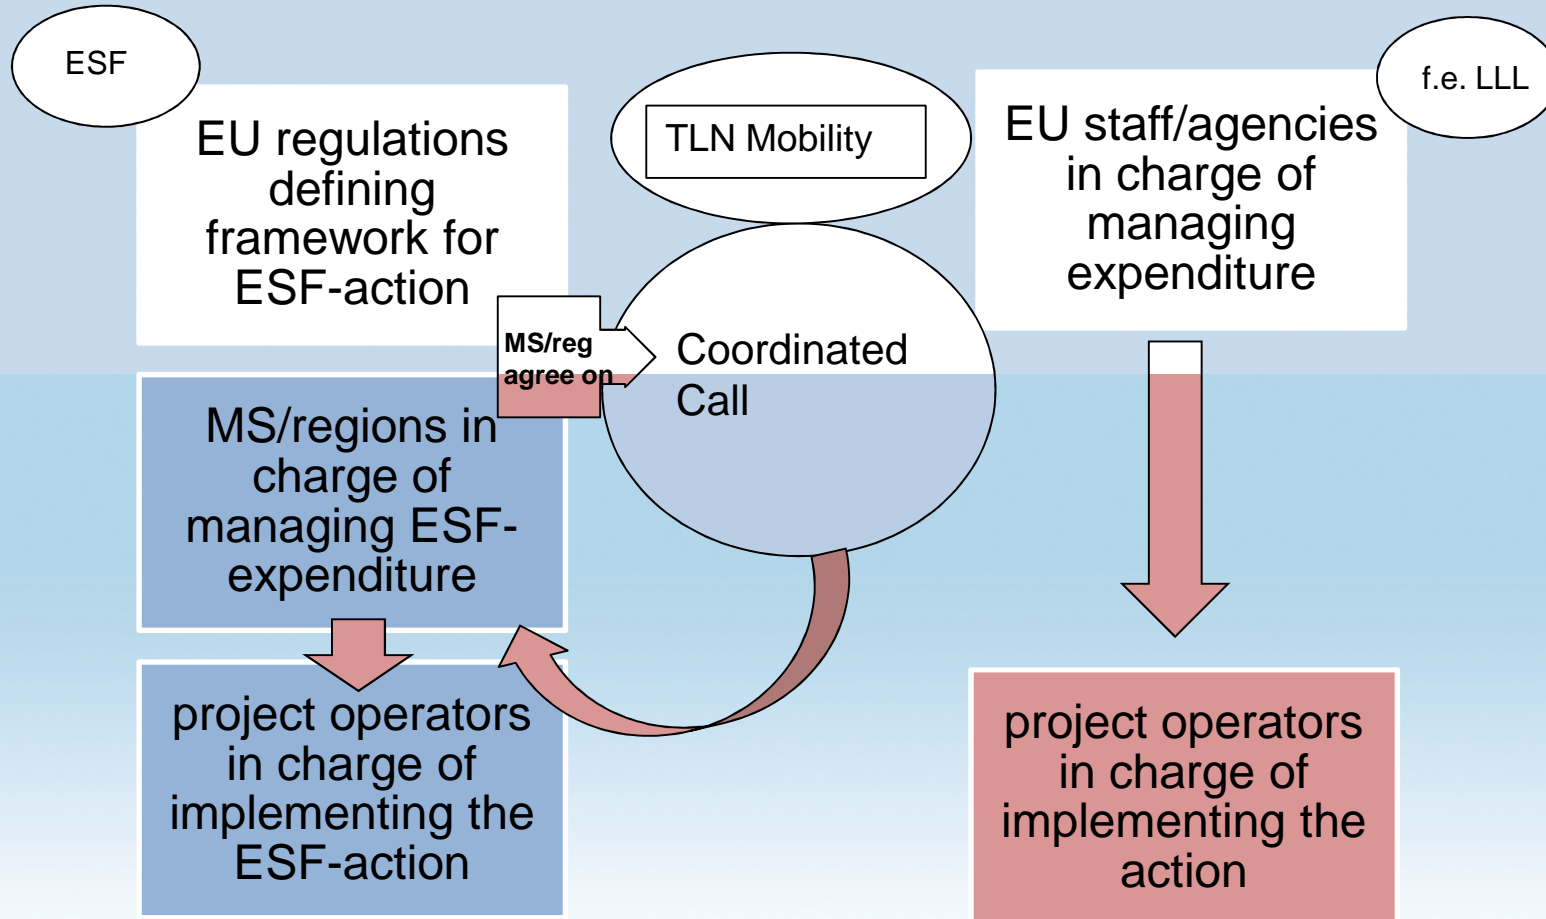

Specific Objective 3: Support for launch of individual calls on national/regional level

Define and implement specific support measures which MS/Regions (may) request

Set up partner search database and organize partner search forum

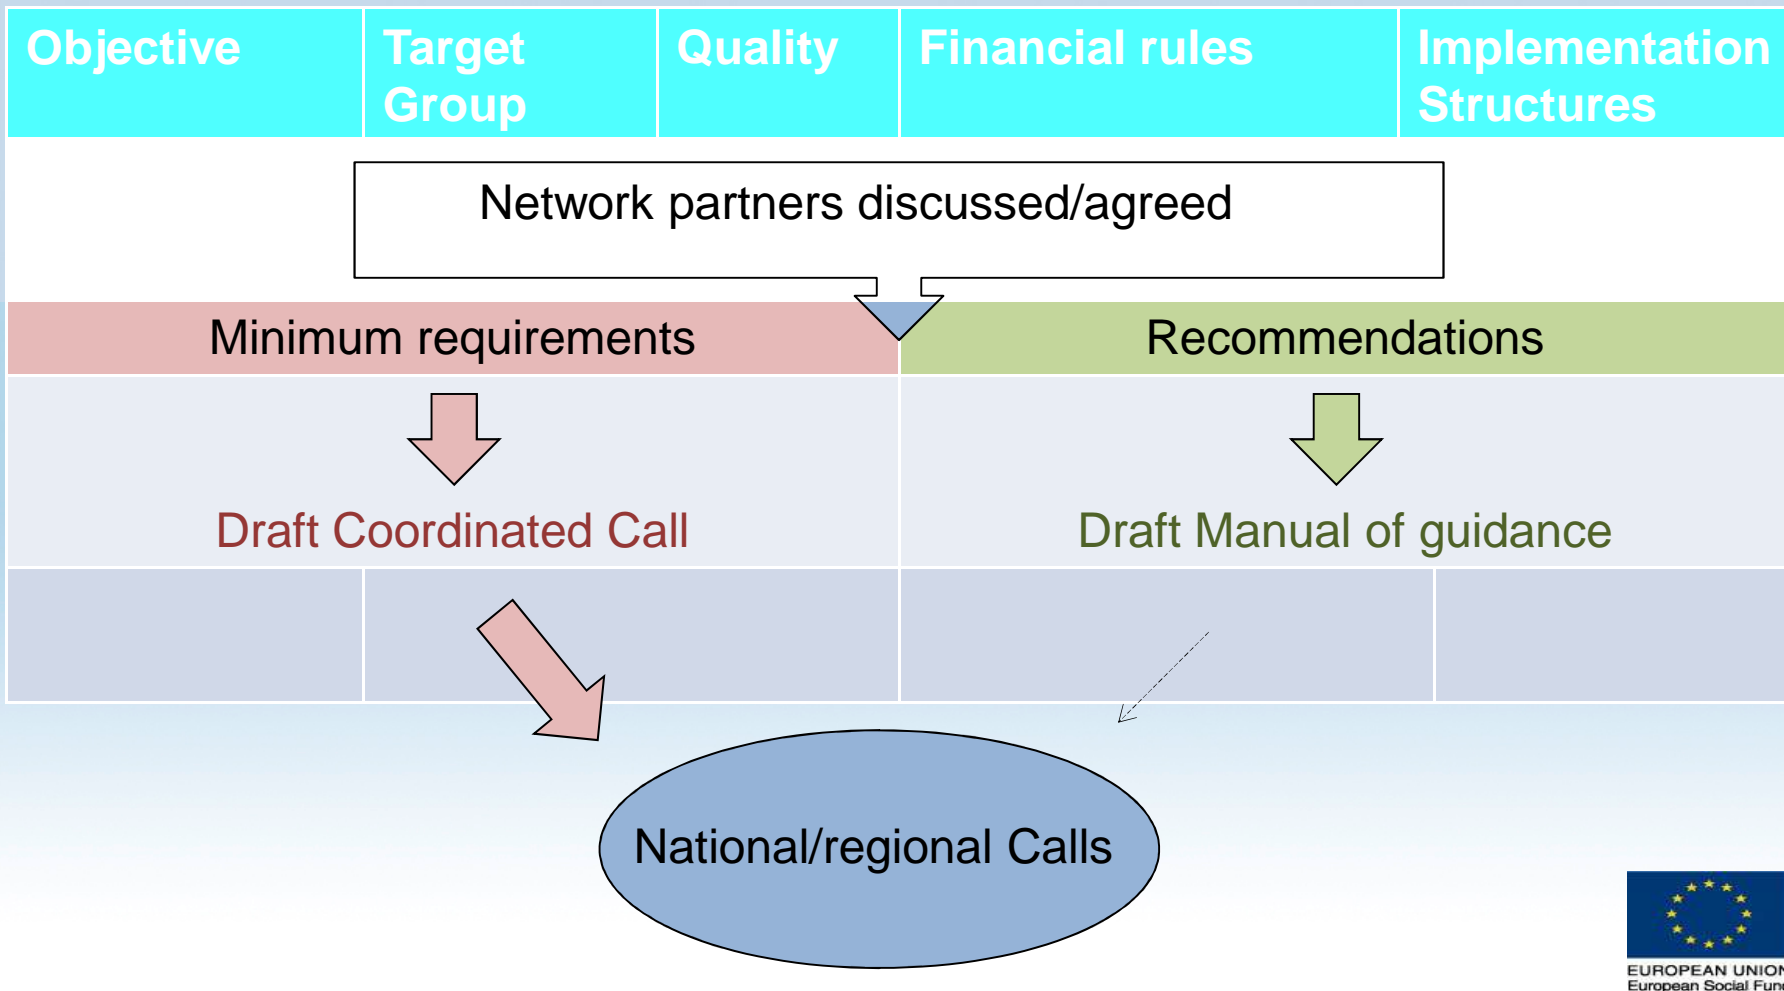

4. Coordinated Call: Policymaking between shared and centralised management

5. The Coordinated Call of TLN Mobility on transnational mobility measures for disadvantaged youth and young adults

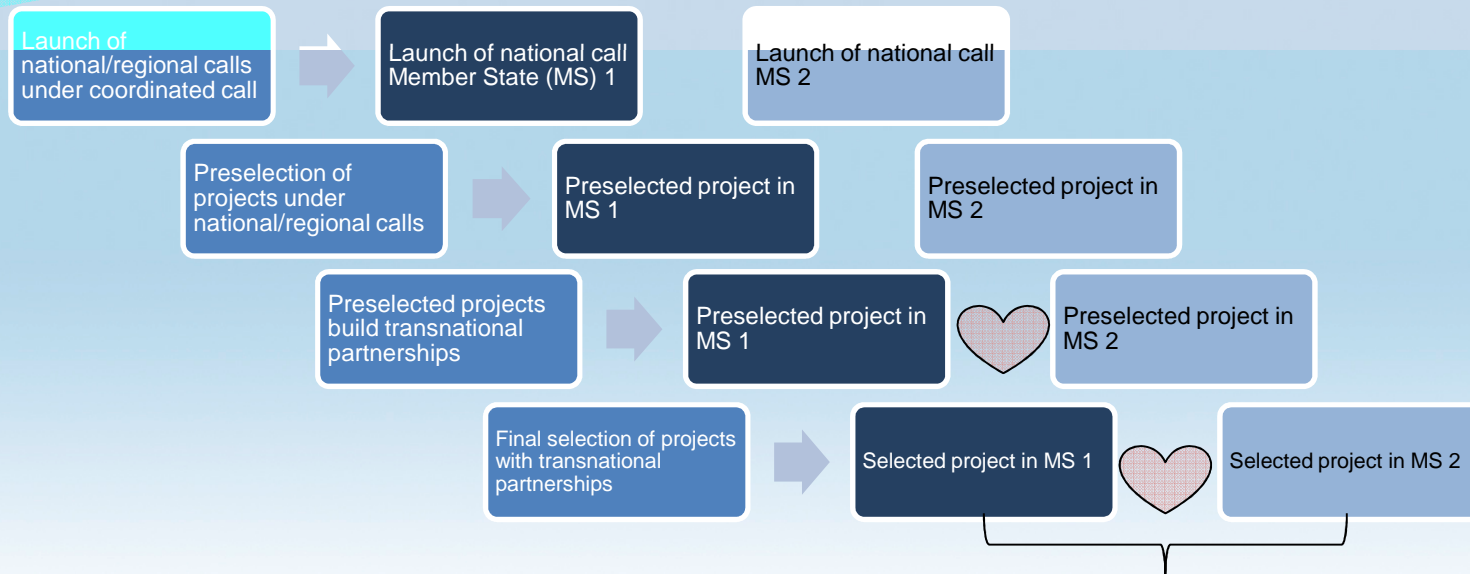

6. The Coordinated Call at a glance: Main Content and Exemplary Process

Content of the coordinated call for transnational mobility projects launched by Member States and Regions (Oct. 2013):

- Objective: to integrate participants into employment, vocational training or education.
- Target Group: young people aged 18 to 30 (35) not in employment, education or training (NEETs).
- Quality: Applicants have to meet minimum requirements with regard to their project structure (phases) and their project management in order to ensure the quality of the transnational mobility programmes.
- Financial rules: Specific rules concerning the exact type and nature of costs eligible in the different project phases are decided by the national/regional authorities.
